

DEVELOPING THE ENTREPRENEURIAL CAPABILITIES OF YOUNG WOMEN

CELEBRATING THE COMPLETION OF THE DECOY PROJECT

The DECOY KA2 project, "Developing the Entrepreneurial Capabilities Of Young Women," has successfully concluded its journey, leaving a lasting impact on female migrants across Europe. Through a series of multiplier events, DECOY has empowered young women with entrepreneurial skills, fostering inclusivity and economic empowerment in partner countries.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE IN DÜSSELDORF, GERMANY

On June, 2024, the DECOY project hosted an international multiplier event in Düsseldorf, Germany, in conjunction with the Erasmus+ project PERSPEKTIVE. Over 40 participants from seven countries attended, witnessing presentations of DECOY's key outputs, including a Guide for Female Migrant Entrepreneurs and practical demonstrations of the Web Platform and E-Modules.

MULTIPLIER EVENT IN ANTALYA, TURKEY

Held on June 26, 2024, at Akdeniz University, Antalya, Turkey, this event gathered 35 participants from various organizations. The event featured presentations of the DECOY multilingual web platform and digital educational modules. Participants provided overwhelmingly positive feedback through an online questionnaire and interviews.

MULTIPLIER EVENT IN PARIS, FRANCE

The University of Versailles St Quentin en Yvelines in Paris hosted a DECOY multiplier event on June 2024. Management and economics students from 14 nationalities engaged deeply with the project's themes, showing particular interest in European and French entrepreneurial legislation and the high percentage of immigrant entrepreneurs.
